Constant Within The Change: Gary Wragg: Five Decades of Paintings: A Comprehensive Catalogue surveys the work of abstract painter Gary Wragg. Trained at Camberwell School of Art and The Slade, Wragg came to prominence in the mid-seventies with two dramatic exhibitions at London's Acme Gallery. Since then he has exhibited nationally and internationally and has work in public collections including the Arts Council Collection; the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge; the South African National Gallery, Cape Town; and the Pompidou, Paris.

Texts by Hilary Spurling, Matthew Collings, Terence Maloon, Sam Cornish, Stefanie Sachsenmaier and Wragg himself explore various aspects of his art - including his affinity with American Abstract Expressionism; his friendship and visits with painters Jack Tworkov and Willem de Kooning; and his practice of Tai Chi, of which he is one of Europe's leading experts.

In two volumes Constant Within The Change includes over five hundred full-colour images, and comes with access to the complete online catalogue of Wragg's work.
